

INTRODUCING OUR SELECTION OF AUSTRALIA'S
LEADING BOARDING
GIRLS... SCHOOLS

KINCOPPAL-ROSE BAY SCHOOL, SYDNEY EST. 1882
At Kincoppal-Rose Bay, School of the Sacred Heart (KRB) for girls, students are welcomed from all over Australia and the world to the School's beautiful location overlooking the Sydney Harbour Bridge and Opera House. Highly academic - full supervision and quality pastoral care provided. KRB will consider a home stay on request: 1300 students (K to Year 12); 150 boarding (Year 7 to 12); International Students: approx. 3% of school population, Average number in a class - 20.

LORETO COLLEGE, ADELAIDE 400 YEAR TRADITION
Loreto College is located within easy distance of downtown Adelaide CBD. Loreto College has a 400 year tradition dedicated to the teaching of girls and students achieve very high grades and recognised for academic achievement. First-class small boarding community of 65 students. Mostly single rooms. Loreto also offers home stay. International Baccalaureate School.
900 students (Prep to Year 12); 65 boarding (Year 7 to 12); International Students: approx. 1% of school population, Average number in a class - 20.

ST HILDA'S SCHOOL, GOLD COAST EST. 1912
St Hilda's is a school that has a wonderful tradition of educating girls and producing outstanding results, in an environment that surrounds them with fine values. These values are based on the Anglican tradition, and open opportunities which develop the girls' personalities and characters. St Hilda's has been offering a caring community life for boarders for almost a century. St Hilda's accepts boarders from Year 6 through to Year 12.
1260 students (Reception to Year 12); 150 boarding (Year 6 to 12); International Students: approx. 4% of school population, Average number in a class - 20.

ST MICHAEL'S COLLEGIATE SCHOOL, HOBART EST. 1892
St. Michael's Collegiate is a day and boarding school for girls rich in history and heritage and providing young women the opportunity to be part of a shared community offering academic excellence (highest achieving students in TCE). A nurturing environment developing a girl's individual development. Located in the centre of the beautiful city of Hobart, capital of Tasmania. A Performing Arts School and offers a Gifted / Support program and career counsellors.
900 students (Kinder to Year 12); 55 boarding (Year 5 to 12); International Students: approx. 3% of school population, Average number in a class - 20.

INTRODUCING OUR SELECTION OF AUSTRALIA'S
LEADING BOARDING
BOYS... SCHOOLS

PRINCE ALFRED COLLEGE, ADELAIDE EST. 1869
Prince Alfred College is one of Australia's leading boys schools. Offering two academic streams: Australian Certificate or International Baccalaureate Diploma (IB). Located on spacious grounds within walking distance to CBD of Adelaide. Home stay is also offered. Outstanding reputation; academic, sporting, music and drama, chess, artistic development, morals and ethics.
1060 students (Reception to Year 12); 140 boarding (Year 7 to 12); International Students: approx. 4% of school population, Average number in a class - 20.

THE HUTCHINS SCHOOL, HOBART TASMANIA EST. 1846
An Anglican Day and Boarding school. Situated (photo left) on an exensive campus overlooking the Derwent River in the capital city of Tasmania. Highly academic (consistently the highest TCE scores achieved). Also 127 Oxford University Rhodes Scholarships achieved by past students. Over 70 subject choices from Years 10 to 12 and a Performing Arts School.
1050 students (Kinder to Year 12); 80 boarding (Year 7 to 12); International Students: approx. 3% of school population, Average number in a class - 20.

THE KINGS SCHOOL, SYDNEY EST. 1831
An extraordinary School. A tradition of educational excellence which spans many years. Australia's oldest independent school, King's enjoys one of the loveliest school settings in the heart of Australia's largest cities. One of the largest boarding schools in Australia. King's is a school of warmth, Christian values and an integrity resulting in it becoming one of Australia's most respected schools. Academic success, sporting and talent in Performance and Arts.
1500 students (Kinder to Year 12); 430 boarding (Year 3 to 12); International Students: approx. 3% of school population, Average number in a class - 20.

THE SOUTHPORT SCHOOL, GOLD COAST EST. 1901
The Southport School (TSS) is an Anglican day and boarding school. Renowned for its strong academics and balanced and holistic approach to boys' education. Cutting-edge educational practices include Leadership Development, Emotional Intelligence and Thinking Skills. A gifted and talented program. Extensive sporting facilities and the School encourages students talented in the Arts.
1380 students (Kinder to Year 12); 310 boarding (Year 5 to 12); International Students: approx. 3% of school population, Average number in a class - 20.